

Reading Comprehension 1 of 2

The First People

Then the Lord God took dust from the ground and formed man from it. The Lord breathed the breath of life into the man's nose. And the man became a living person. Then the Lord God planted a garden in the East, in a place called Eden. He put the man he had formed in that garden. The Lord God caused every beautiful tree and every tree that was good for food to grow out of the ground. In the middle of the garden, God put the tree that gives the knowledge of good and evil.

The Lord God put the man in the garden of Eden to care for it and work it. The Lord God commanded him, "You may eat the fruit from any tree in the garden. But you must not eat the fruit from the tree which gives the knowledge of good and evil. If you ever eat fruit from that tree, you will die!"

Then the Lord God said, "It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a helper who is right for him."

So the Lord God caused the man to sleep very deeply. While the man was asleep, God took one of the ribs from the man's body. Then God closed the man's skin at the place where he took the rib. The Lord God used the rib from the man to make a woman. Then the Lord brought the woman to the man.....

The Beginning of Sin

Now the snake was the most clever of all the wild animals the Lord God had made. One day the snake spoke to the woman. He said, "Did God really say that you must not eat fruit from any tree in the garden?"

The woman answered the snake, "We may eat fruit from the trees in the garden. But God told us, 'You must not eat fruit from the tree that is in the middle of the garden. You must not even touch it, or you will die.'"

But the snake said to the woman, "You will not die. God knows that if you eat the fruit from that tree, you will learn about good and evil. Then you will be like God!"

The woman saw that the tree was beautiful. She saw that its fruit was good to eat and that it would make her wise. So she took some of its fruit and ate it. She also gave some of the fruit to her husband who was with her, and he ate it.

Reading Comprehension 2 of 2

Then, it was as if the man's and the woman's eyes were opened. They realised they were naked. So they sewed fig leaves together and made something to cover themselves.

Then they heard the Lord God walking in the garden. This was during the cool part of the day. And the man and his wife hid from the Lord God among the trees in the garden. But the Lord God called to the man. The Lord said, "Where are you?"

The man answered, "I heard you walking in the garden. I was afraid because I was naked. So I hid." God said to the man, "Who told you that you were naked? Did you eat fruit from that tree? I commanded you not to eat from that tree." The man said, "You gave this woman to me. She gave me fruit from the tree. So I ate it."

Then the Lord God said to the woman, "What have you done?" She answered, "The snake tricked me. So I ate the fruit." So the Lord God forced the man out of the garden of Eden. He had to work the ground he was taken from.

You're Special (1)

The Bible tells us that each person has been specially made by God. Did you know there is only one of you? You are unique! There has never ever been anyone like you on earth before - and there never will be again...

You're one-of-a-kind! And that make you very, very special indeed!

Class Survey

Write your name in the dark box next to NAME and write down your answers in the first column below your name. What's your favourite colour? etc.

Ask people on your table (up to 5 others) what their answers are- by putting their name next to yours and filling in their answers in their column. How many of you had answers in common- how many were completely different. Even if you have similarities, I bet no-one has one completely the same because you are one of a kind!!

NAME
Favourite Colour
Any pets? If so, what?
Older brother/sister?
Younger brother/sister?
Favourite activity
Favourite food
Month you were born
Favourite animal

FUN FACT: When you were being formed in your mum's tummy your fingers rubbed against the side of the womb. These tiny forces pushed your skin as it grew and formed little ridges. That is how you have a unique fingerprint unlike anyone else's!!

'Walk... See... Smell... Hear... Taste... Touch... Breathe...'

Our bodies are very complicated & clever! Our heart receives blood from our veins and pumps it into our lungs to pick up oxygen, gets rid of carbon dioxide and then pumps blood through arteries to the rest of the body. Clever eh? When we eat, our bodies cleverly digests food and turns it into energy and then gets rid of the waste.

There are over 650 muscles in the human bodies under our skin and they cover our bones. Muscles often work together to help us move. And we don't even think about moving each individual muscle. We just think of running and our bodies do the rest! And when you smile you use a minimum of ten muscles but you don't even think about it. You body is brilliant!

OUR FIVE SENSES

Our five senses are very important to the way we live our lives. Sometimes we don't really think about how we use them. Spend a minute quietly now looking, hearing and touching the things around you.

I saw.....

I heard

I touched.....It felt.....

Perhaps in the playground later try to think about all the things you can hear.

FUN FACT: Smiling makes us healthier! Smiling stops us from worrying, as well as lowering our blood pressure and heart rate. The happiness level that a smile can bring to our brains is the same as having 2,000 bars of chocolate, or getting £16,000!!!!

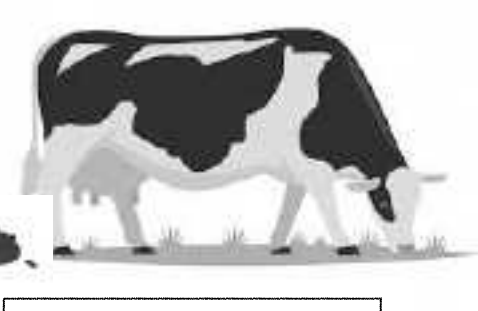

Our Five Senses

Sight, Smell, Hearing, Taste, Touch

Below are some images. Write next to each images the sense(s) you might use when coming into contact with each one.

Made and Known

The Bible teaches Christians that God formed us and that He knows everything about us! In the book of Luke chapter twelve Jesus said “..the very hairs of your head are all numbered.” The Bible talks about God knowing how many hairs are even on your head!! Not even the people closest to you know that! The Bible teaches that God knows each of us best of all.

Below is a famous poem (or psalm) from the Bible. Have a go at drawing pictures or decorating it. You can always underline any lines that you find interesting.

Psalm 139

Lord, you have examined me.
You know all about me.
You know when I sit down and when I get up.
You know my thoughts before I think them.
You know where I go and where I lie down.
You know well everything I do.

Lord, even before I say a word,
you already know what I am going to say.
You are all around me—in front and in back.
You have put your hand on me.

You made my whole being.
You formed me in my mother’s body.

I praise you because you made me in an amazing and wonderful way.
What you have done is wonderful.
I know this very well.

You saw my bones being formed as I took shape
in my mother’s body.
When I was put together there,
you saw my body as it was formed.
All the days planned for me were written in your book before I was one day old.

Friends

In the Christian story of Creation, God makes people because he wants to be friends with them. It teaches us that we're designed for relationships, relationships with God... with our friends... with our families ... and with everyone around us.

How do these relationships make us feel?

Below is a list of emotions: Which ones do we feel when we have good friends or family around us? Draw a line to connect the emotions you might feel to the correct middle circle.

Discuss:

What makes a good friendship? What doesn't?

As a class, come up with a list of suggestions for having good friendships.

Care-Takers

"The Lord God put the man in the garden of Eden to care for it and work it." Genesis 2:15

God gave Adam & Eve the job of looking after the Garden of Eden.
He wanted them to take care of it.

We live in a wonderful world too... And it's the responsibility of all of us to take care of it.
How can we do that?

Discuss:

- What sort of things are helpful to look after our planet?
- What sort of things spoil it?

Make a list below:

HELPFUL

NOT HELPFUL

_____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____		_____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____

What could you do to make the world a better, nicer place to live?

To help the environment, I am going to try to _____

Choices

Good news - you're not a robot! You have a mind of your own and you can make your own choices. We sometimes call this 'free will'.

Sometimes we will make good choices...

And sometimes we will make bad choices...

But the point is that they will be your own choices - and no-one else's.

PEER PRESSURE GAME

Ask for a volunteer to sit in a chair in the middle at the front. Then ask for several more volunteers - 6 is a good number - and stand them either side of the seated volunteer. (It's a good idea to not put them too close to the seated one as the game tends to get rather noisy!)

The job of the seated volunteer is to sit in the chair and the job of the standing volunteers is to get the seated one out of their chair - but with their words only! (They are not allowed to make physical contact in any way whatsoever with the person in the chair)

Give them 30 seconds and tell them they can say anything they want (within reason!)

They can ask, they can persuade, they can promise, they can say anything they want! (They can promise a bag of sweets... they can say there's an alien in the playground...)

Encourage the rest of the class to join in with suggestions.

After 30 seconds, the seated volunteer is generally still in their chair...

Explain that even though the standing volunteers had tried to persuade them in many different ways - they couldn't make the seated one do anything...

It was their own personal choice to leave the chair or not.

Think:

Is there a time I listened to someone else, but then afterwards wished I hadn't?

Is there a time I didn't listen to someone, but afterwards wished I had?

Creative Writing

Imagine you're either Adam or Eve and you've just had to leave the garden of Eden. Write a letter to God. What would you say? Can you remember some of the good times? How do you feel now about having eaten the fruit?

Adam & Eve colouring

Adam and Eve started off as such good friends with God. Eating the apple was the one thing God had asked them not to do. Below is a drawing of the garden of Eden after they've eaten the fruit. What colour do you think the sky might be now? As you colour in the picture below imagine how each of the characters might be feeling? Write down some emotion words at the bottom of the picture.

Sequencing

Match the picture with the correct description from the list at the bottom by putting the descriptions' letter top left of the picture (in the diamond). Now put the pictures in their correct order by ordering them from 1-9 in the order that they happened in. Do this by filling in the circle top right of each picture. No. 1 has been done for you!

- A. God realises what they've done
- B. Eve eats the fruit
- C. Adam and Eve have to leave the garden of Eden
- D. God makes Eve
- E. They hear God and hide
- F. ~~God makes Adam~~
- G. Adam eats the fruit
- H. God tells them they can do anything except eat fruit from the tree of knowledge
- I. Disguised as a snake, Lucifer tells Eve that eating the fruit will make her like God

Consequences

Just like Adam and Eve in the garden of Eden, we're all free to make our own choices... But those choices will have an effect on the world & the people around us, and - in particular - on ourselves.

We call these 'consequences'...

Below are two lists. Match the action with the consequence by putting a line from one to the other.

CONSEQUENCE

- Not cleaning your teeth
- Listening to your teacher
- Eating lots of unhealthy food
- Taking care crossing the road
- Saying kind things
- Saying mean things

- Having lots of friends
- Becoming unfit/ unhealthy
- Making a difference to your family
- Causing arguments
- Keeping your community tidy
- Getting a good mark
- Getting toothache

How did it feel?

Christians believe that God wants to be friends with us. But for this to happen, there has to be the opportunity for us not to choose to be friends.

The Tree of the Knowledge of Good & Evil was in the Garden of Eden for a good reason. It could have been hidden away, but God wanted to know that he could trust his friends and that they would choose to listen to him.

How did life change in the Garden of Eden after Adam & Eve broke God's rule? Have a go at completing the sentences below with as many words as you can think of. You can use words in the box below or think of your own.

Before they broke the rule:

Adam & Eve felt _____

God felt _____

After they broke the rule:

Adam & Eve felt _____

God felt _____

afraid	safe	joyful	grateful	secure	content
worried	upset	guilty	valued	disappointed
hopeless	loved	rejected	ashamed	free

Drama Activity

You'll need a bit of space for this drama activity!

Divide the class into eleven groups. Most of the pictures only require 2 or 3 main characters but you can have others as animals, plants and trees on some of the larger pictures (1,5 & 11), or add one more person per group as the narrator to make up the title and speak it aloud.

Each group needs to come up with a still or frozen picture tableaux using their bodies to demonstrate their part of the Adam & Eve story. Make sure no-one moves or makes a sound... they must be completely frozen!

The 11 possible pictures are listed on the next page ready to cut out for pupils - or make up your own...

Challenge!

Add Sound Effects. After the days have been shown to the class ask each group to go back and add sound effects for example of Picture 7 Eve could say “mmmmmm” to convey her delight in the apple and the snake could hiss in triumph.

Further Challenge!

Add Emotion words. Each character can choose an emotion word or a word to describe how they're feeling. For example on picture 8 Eve could show the apple saying “tasty” or “try” and Adam could say “shocked” or “confused”.

TIP. If you turn this into a performance or an assembly presentation, you could keep all the animals and trees in the background to create the sense of the garden throughout.

Made In God's Image

“I will call him Adam and I will give him mind of his own”

“But God, isn't that dangerous?”

“Maybe, but he has to be free to choose and do whatever he wants”

The Bible says that God made us in His image.

Does that mean God has 2 arms, 2 legs and a head? We can only guess about that! But it does mean that we have a lot of the same qualities as him on the inside...

Many Christians believe that through Bible stories we can find out lots about Gods character: who He is on the inside or what He's like. For example, from the story of Creation we can understand that God is creative. We also can find out that His creation brought Him delight.

Through the story of Adam and Eve Christians understand that God is relational (wanting friendship with us): that He's friendly. From the story Christians also understand that He loves people enough to let us make our own decisions - even if we make decisions that get us (or others) hurt. He created us to choose and not to be a robot! That means He respects us and our decisions. We could also understand from the story that He is just and fair - because Adam and Eve had to leave the garden because of their poor choice.

Creative,
Delighted,
Friendly,
Respectful,
Fair

Some of Gods inside qualities are written in the circle. Take some time to think about some of your inside qualities then write them below.

Inside I am...

Friends With God p.1

The Christian story of Creation teaches us that God thought that we as people were the most special thing that He created. It teaches Christians that He wants to be connected to us. Just like He walked in person with Adam and Eve in the garden He wants to walk with us today. So what does that mean? How can Christians walk with God today?

Many Christians believe that it's about having a connection- or a friendship -with God. Here are a few ways that Christians can feel close to God...

Praying (or talking to God). There are many different ways that Christians do this. Some people talk from their heart to God in private (like a friend), some people pray in groups aloud together or follow a set prayer like The Lords' Prayer (see next page) that Jesus taught people to pray. Pray can cover many things and it's sometimes useful to remember the word ACTS

A is for Adoration. Praising God for being Lord over all and for who He is and for what He's like.

C is for Confession. Confession is telling God the things that you've done that you're not proud of and asking God for His forgiveness. Also forgiving others who may have hurt you.

T is for Thanksgiving. Thanking God for all the good things in your life and in the world around you.

S is for supplication (which means asking). Asking God to meet your needs and the needs of others. Sometimes Christians pray for a situation in their own life, or for a friend, for someone who is poorly or pray for something difficult going on in the world.

Friends With God p.2

Going to Church

Many Christians feel closer to God by meeting together. Some people like to go to a beautiful old building and some people hold church in a school or even their house! The Bible says to Christians (in the book of Hebrews 10:25) 'you should meet together and encourage each other.'

At church people often sing songs of worship to God, hear the Bible and some teaching, pray together and spend time together.

Reading the Bible

Reading the Bible can be very important to many Christians. This is because Christians believe it to be the word of God and full of truth and wisdom. The Bible is a collection of 66 different books and includes stories, poems, letters, sayings and songs.

Sharing stories or experiences

Sharing stories or experiences often helps Christians be closer to God. These can be called 'testimonies' and these experiences are sometimes shared to encourage each other.

ASK!

Do you know any Christian people to ask about their experience? Are you a Christian? Perhaps, if you are you, can tell others how and when you feel close to God. What do you do? How does it help you to feel close to God. If there are people of different faiths in your class you could ask them how they connect with God and what they do.

The Lord's Prayer

'Our Father in heaven,
we pray that your name will always be kept holy.

We pray that your kingdom will come.
We pray that what you want will be done,
here on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us the food we need for each day.
Forgive the sins we have done,
just as we have forgiven those who did wrong
to us.

And do not cause us to be tested;
but save us from the Evil One.'

The kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours forever. Amen.

(Amen means 'I agree!')

In the Creation story, God decides to give Adam and Eve a mind of their own: the freedom to choose. Lucifer, disguised as a snake, was very cunning. He asked Eve “Did God really say....?”

Lucifer couldn't make Adam and Eve break the rules... he couldn't force them but he could persuade them to... He could lie and trick them and tell them that they misunderstood. He could tell them that rules weren't fair and that it wouldn't matter if they did break God's one and only rule. But he was wrong. He wasn't telling the truth.

Lucifer may have lied to them but it was Adam and Eve's own choice to break the rules. And so they were the ones who had to pay the price...

The story of Adam and Eve doesn't have a happy ending... it ends with sin (or wrong-doing) coming into the world and Adam & Eve having to leave Eden. In Christianity, this beginning of sin is sometimes called 'the fall' because Adam and Eve fell from perfection and things began to go wrong...

The Bible teaches that, just like Adam and Eve sinned (or did wrong), that we all do wrong. Do you remember that God warned Adam and Eve what would happen if they ate the fruit?

But this sad ending of the creation story is not the end of the big story of Christianity. God was so sad about not having friendship like he used to with people in the Garden of Eden, that he began planning a rescue mission to make things right again.

He would do this by finding someone to take all the sin away by dying on earth in our place, for our wrong-doing. This rescue had to be done by someone who would be prepared to freely choose to pay the price for each and every one of us. He sent his very own son, Jesus.

For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish (die) but have eternal life.

John 3:16

The Fall & The Cross p.2

Christians believe that Jesus lived on earth thousands of years after Adam and Eve. His mother was Mary and you may even celebrate his birth without knowing it - as it's the festival of Christmas. The Bible says that Jesus taught amazing things about how to love God and how to love others, he performed many miracles and had a huge amount of followers. Christianity teaches Jesus was crucified and died, but that he came back to life three days later, beating death forever.

Christians believe that by dying on the cross Jesus paid for everyone's sin (or wrong-doing) so that people can be close to God again.

Christians also believe that those who believe in Jesus can have life forever in heaven after their bodies die.
